Confidential Information may be contained in discovery information or materials produced or obtained in this action by or through any means and by or through any person or entity. The Confidential Information contained therein and all copies, recordings, abstracts, excerpts, analyses or other writings that contain, reveal or otherwise disclose such Confidential Information shall also be deemed Confidential Information.

2. The parties will designate as "Confidential" all Confidential Information. The parties may designate as "Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only" all Confidential Information that satisfies the requirements of paragraph 1 and which comprises or contains particularly sensitive information of the parties and their affiliates, including, but not limited to, customer information, financial and marketing information, information relating to research, development and testing of a party's existing and proposed future products, information relating to the processes, apparatus, or analytical techniques used by a party in its present or proposed commercial production of such products, information relating to pending or abandoned patent applications which have not been made available to the public, and any other information as agreed to by the parties, that a disclosing party believes in good faith could cause irreparable harm to its business if disclosed to personnel for the receiving party.

3. Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information shall be disclosed, disseminated and used by the Receiving Party only for purposes of this civil action. Except with the prior written consent of the Producing Party or upon prior order of this Court, Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information shall not be disclosed except in accordance with the terms, conditions, and restrictions of this Order.

4. The term "Producing Party" means the party or person designating documents or information as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information under this Order.

5. The term "Receiving Party" shall mean the party to whom the Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information is disclosed.

6. The parties (or third parties producing documents or other evidence for use in this proceeding) may designate material as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information in the following manner:

Each party shall attach a copy of such written statement to the face of the transcript and each copy thereof in its possession, custody or control. If no such designations are made either on the record at the time the deposition is taken or within the time period specified above, the transcript and exhibits shall not be deemed to contain Confidential or Highly Confidential-Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information. Accessibility to each transcript (and the information contained therein) of any deposition in its entirety shall be limited to outside counsel of record only, from the taking of the deposition until thirty (30) days after actual receipt of the transcript by the Producing Party, or until receipt of the notice referred to in this paragraph, whichever occurs sooner. At the expiration of the said thirty (30) day period, unless designations in writing or at deposition are provided prior to the expiration of said period, the entire transcript shall be deemed non-confidential.

(b) Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information contained in any affidavit, brief, memorandum or other paper filed with the Court in this action, or discovery request or response served on a party, may be designated as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information by indicating on the face of such documents that one or more parties consider them to contain Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information.

9. Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information may be used in the course of the trial of this action, subject to such restrictions as the court may find are reasonable to protect its confidentiality.

10. (a) A party may exclude from a deposition any person who is not entitled to have access to Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information when such Information is the subject of examination.

(c) Before disclosing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only information to any person under subparagraph 7(c), the party seeking to make such disclosure shall first give written notice to counsel for the party whose Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information is to be disclosed (the Producing Party) of the name and address of the person to whom disclosure is to be made, including a current resume or curriculum vitae disclosing such person's prior or present relationship, if any, with the parties. If the Producing Party reasonably believes it would be harmed by the proposed disclosure, it may object in writing to such disclosure within ten (10) business days after receipt of the notice. In the event of an objection, the parties shall promptly confer to attempt to resolve the concerns giving rise to the objection. If the parties are unable to reach agreement regarding such disclosure, the party seeking disclosure may, prior to the time of the intended disclosure, request this Court to issue an order permitting the disclosure. No disclosure shall be made until the expiration of the ten (10) business day period for the opposing party to make an objection, or if such objection is made, until the resolution of the objection, whether formally or informally.

(d) The disclosure of the identity of a consulting expert will not be a waiver of any privilege that applies to communications with the consultant or the consultant's work product. Furthermore, the parties agree that by stipulating to the entry of this Order, the parties do not intend to modify in any way the discovery rules applicable to consulting experts.

11. Designations of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information shall constitute a representation that there is a valid basis for such designation. Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information shall be maintained by the Receiving Party under the overall supervision of outside counsel. The attorneys of record for the parties shall exercise best efforts to ensure that the information and documents governed by this Order are (i) used only for the purposes set forth herein, and (ii) disclosed only to authorized persons. During the pendency of this action, any disputes as to whether information is Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information under the terms of this Order shall be resolved according to the procedure set forth in paragraph 13 hereof.

13. The parties shall first try to resolve such dispute in good faith on an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the party challenging the designation may request appropriate relief from the Court no sooner than five (5) days following the service of a written notice of disagreement. The burden of proving that information has been properly designated as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information is on the party making such designation. Until there is a determination by the Court, the information in issue shall be treated as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information and subject to the terms of this Order. Any failure to object to any material being designated as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information shall not be construed as an admission by any non-designating party that the material constitutes or contains a trade secret or other confidential information.

14. Confidential Material or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information produced by a party may be disclosed to a 30(b)(6) witness on behalf of, or any current employee of, that party in the course of his or her deposition in this action.

15. 18. Written material constituting or revealing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information, when filed with the Court in this action for any reason, shall be filed in sealed envelopes or other appropriate sealed containers on which shall be endorsed the title of this action, an indication of the nature of the contents of such sealed envelope or other container, and a statement substantially in one of the following forms:

FILED UNDER SEAL

19. The Clerk of the Court is directed to place and maintain under seal in accordance with this Order any such pleading or other document filed with or delivered to this Court pursuant to paragraph 18 or any other provision hereof.

20. Nothing herein shall prevent disclosure beyond the terms of this Order if the party producing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information consents in writing to such disclosure, or if the Court, after notice to all affected parties, orders or permits such disclosure.

21. The inadvertent production in discovery of any privileged or otherwise protected or exempted information, as well as the inadvertent production in discovery of information without an appropriate designation of confidentiality, shall not be deemed a waiver or impairment of any claim of privilege or protection, including but not limited to the attorney-client privilege, the protection afforded to work-product materials or the subject matter thereof, or the confidential nature of any such information, provided that the Producing Party shall promptly provide notice to the Receiving Party in writing when inadvertent production is discovered. Upon receiving written notice from the Producing Party that privileged information or work-product material has been inadvertently produced, such information shall be returned to counsel for the Producing Party and the Receiving Party shall not use such information for any purpose except application to the Court until further Order of the Court. 23. Third parties who produce information in this action may avail themselves of the provisions of this Order, and discovery materials produced by third parties shall be treated by the parties in conformance with this Order.

24. In the event that any of the parties (a) is subpoenaed in another action, (b) is served with a demand in another action to which it is a party, or (c) is served with any other legal process by a person not a party to this litigation, and is requested to produce or otherwise disclose discovery material that is designated as Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Outside Attorneys' Eyes Only Information by another party, the party subpoenaed or served in
